Scholarships Available Application Deadline: 10 April 2019

The German Education Exchange Service is offering scholarships for Teaching Assistants

to spend nine months at a German school between September 2019 and May 2020.

Teaching assistants are placed at schools across Germany – usually at secondary school level – and assist in teaching English for up to 12 hours per week.

The scholarship entails a monthly stipend of about €850, a travel subsidy and a combined health, accident and liability insurance for the duration of the programme.

Applicants must be native speakers of English and confident communicating in German. Students of German language and/or literature holding a BA at the time of the beginning of the programme are preferred. Applicants should be under the age of 29 years at the time of application.

Documents required:

- Application form including three passport photographs,
- Curriculum vitae in German,
- Cover letter in German detailing your motivation as well as your expectations,
- Recent letter of reference from one of your university teachers,
- Transcripts of records,
- Evidence of sufficient German language skills (German language certificate or test result),
- Certificate of health,
- All documents in three copies please.

Further details and the application form are available from the German Education Exchange Service's website.

Applications must reach the

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany
90-92 Hobson Street, Thorndon, Wellington 6011
PO Box 1687, Wellington 6140

on or before 10 April 2019 (application deadline).
