Application to record an overseas birth in the register of births (section 36 of the Civil Status Act (PStG))

Important information on identifying the competent registry office

The birth should be registered at the registry office in whose district the child, or (if the child has never lived in Germany) the applicant, is or was last resident in Germany, or is habitually resident. A minor child is deemed to have the same residence as the parent(s) holding parental responsibility. Registry Office I in Berlin is only responsible if neither the child nor the applicant has ever been resident in Germany at any stage of their lives.
